

Aimee Catherine (McMahon) Mandala

Aimee is the youngest of four children born to Paul R. McMahon, Jr. and Margaret A. (Egan) McMahon. She arrived on the second day of September, 1981 in Long Beach, CA. Aimee is a great-granddaughter of John J Sr. and Katherine E. (Duffy) McMahon.

Growing up she attended St. Barnabas Elementary School in Long Beach and St. Joseph High School in Lakewood, CA. Aimee was very involved in athletics and participated on the Varsity Soccer Team and JV Cross Country team. She graduated from high school in 2000.

After high school, Aimee attended California State University, Long Beach, and in 2005 she graduated with a Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree in Creative Writing.

Being a sucker for family tradition, in 2006 Aimee entered the field of Architecture as an administrative professional, working for a firm located in downtown Long Beach, CA She earned her LEED AP credential (Leadership in Energy & Environmental Design Accredited Professional with the US Green Building Council) in 2009, as well as a certification with the Society of Design Administration as a Certified Design Firm Administrator in 2009. Her current title is Director of Administration.

Aimee married Travis Robert Mandala (B. 06/07/1982) on September 25, 2008. They currently reside in Lakewood, CA with their two chocolate labs, Guinness and Raja.

In her free time, Aimee takes an art class with her father (Paul R, Jr.) and sister, Mary Elizabeth McMahon. A writer at heart, Aimee has recently started a blog to document the day-to-day moments she treasures. You may contact her at:

Email: aimee.mandala@gmail.com Blog: http://www.aimeestreasures.blogspot.com